Mrs. Barbara, a resident of Houma, was the daughter of the late Nollis Trahan and the former Florence Simon. A graduate of Crowley High School, class of 1965, she promptly married her high school sweetheart, Edward, and they began their life together. Barbara was a teller for First National Bank of Houma and then Whitney Bank, retiring after over 30 years. The recipient of multiple awards, she was a diligent and hard-working employee, taking great pride in her work. She was a faithful parishioner at St. Bernadette Catholic Church, helping in whatever ways she was able. Barbara loved bowling, outplaying her husband on quite a few occasions! She loved cooking and trying new recipes for her family and friends, always refining her skills in the kitchen. A loving mother, wife, daughter and sister, Barbara will be dearly missed by all.

She is survived by her husband of 55 years, Edward Landry, Jr; son, Jeffrey Landry; mother, Florence Trahan; brother, Daniel Trahan; and sister, Connie Trahan.

She was preceded in death by her father, Nollis J. Trahan.
