“ Dale, Barbara and Sid, Please accept our prayers and virtual hugs at the news of Dottie’s passing. We enjoyed meeting her at Victoria last Mardi Gras, and we know she is smiling down from heaven at a life well lived. Love, Kenneth and Laurie Jankower James

“ Mrs. Barbara, Mr. Dale, and Sydney,
You know, I really should’ve thanked my parents for shaving a great group of friends with a great group of kids. I have such great memories of Dottie from my childhood!! I remember having so much fun on trips to Navarre Beach, USL basketball games, skiing once, one of the Carolinas (I believe). And I’ll never forget spending the night with Dottie, when you guys brought me home and I got my puppy (man, I begged for a puppy for years)! I’ll never forget Dottie’s spirit! I’m so sorry that she left this Earth too soon. My prayers are with you.

“ To: Mr Dale, Mrs. Barbara, Sydney, Her Children & EVERYONE Whose Lives Were Blessed by This Fallen Star I Send My Deepest Condolences. I grieve w/you all & hope you find your paths to healing w/a little less light to guide you than before...

Dottie was less than a month older than me...& growing up she never let me forget it! Every time we got together, which was once or twice a year because my father was friends w/Mr Dale & Mrs. Barbara, we would reminisce on our 1st meeting each other...@ 6 or 7 we were already reminiscing...how we attended preschool together & I, FOOLISHLY, thought I could “borrow” some of HER Play-Doh...to which she responded by biting the back of my hand! For me, it was love...not that day, but ever after as I always tried to make her mine, up until Jr. High or High School @ which juncture our clicks didn’t exactly line up (she was too cool for me!). I moved to Az after Freshman year, but promptly ran back into her when I moved back to La for a few months because she had married another friend of mine. I’ll never forget rolling down the street, about to turn into another friend’s driveway in Carencro, when I see this crazy, pudgy midget jumping up & down & acting like she KNEW me! I realized who she was about the same time she tackled me getting out my car! She was like a little tater tot, unlike how she had been all of our lives up until that point, because she was pregnant w/her 1st child. After she & my friend had their beautiful daughter I hung out w/them a few times, then moved back to Az & then finally back here, but never was able to reconnect w/my dear, childhood friend. I regret that, Dottie, & I’m sorry we weren’t able to get together one last time & reminisce about how...u

remember when I "borrowed" some of ur Play-Doh & you bit my hand.....?

“ Sweet Sweet Moriah. As a kid when I lived in Greensboro and my mom was struggling/growing, we lived in the same complex and she never hesitated to do what she could to make things easier on my mom. Even if it meant treating me like one of her own. As a kid and a time like there where I wasn't happy it was nice to have ladies who treated me like family. I hadn't had the pleasure of ever speaking to her again and I hate that I never got to. I hope she rest peacefully. If messages could travel - I hope you get this one.
