

Elgenia "Genie" Blakeney Yount

March 10, 1925 - December 11, 2018

Elgenia Blakeney Yount died peacefully, December 11, 2018 at Camelot of Broussard. She was surrounded by her loving family. Elgenia "Genie" was born on March 10, 1925 in Laurel, MS, the daughter of Colin Floyd Blakeney and Gertrude Killingsworth Blakeney. On July 30, 1949 she married the love of her life, Byrd Theodore (Ted) Yount, Jr. and moved to Lafayette, LA. They both worked at Drew Cornell, Inc. With the arrival of her two children, Genie chose to become a homemaker and devote her time, talents, and love to raising her family.

She is survived by her two children, Deborah (Cain) Moncla and Floyd (Melie) Yount; four grandsons, Andrew (Jacie) Moncla, Benjamin Moncla, Blake Yount, Ted (Amber) Yount; six great-grandchildren, Maddox, Lillie, Tucker, and Sophie Moncla, Emily Grace and Campbell Yount; three nieces, Marlyn Jenkins, Mary Louise Moehring and Susan Redding; one nephew, Charles Moore and Gloria Williams, a dear family friend. She was preceded in death by her parents; her husband, Ted and her sister, Frances Marlyn Moore.

Funeral Services will be held at 1:00 PM on Friday, December 14, 2018 in Delhomme Chapel of the Flowers with Luther Burney officiating. Visitation will begin Friday at 10:00 AM until time of service. Music will be provided by Ramona Carmichael and accompanied by Debbie Arceneaux. Hymns included in the service will be Softly and Tenderly, Amazing Grace, and How Great Thou Art.

Interment will take place at Fountain Memorial Cemetery.

Serving as Pallbearers will be Genie's four grandsons and two great-grandsons.

The family would like to thank Agnes' Angels, Camelot of Broussard, Hospice of Acadiana, Gloria Williams, and the many friends and neighbors on Tackaberry Road for their loving care and support.

1 Corinthians, 13:13 And now abide faith, hope, love, these three; but the greatest of these is love.
