

John Bennett Lapoint

September 19, 1991 - September 3, 2019

John Bennett Lapoint, age 27, passed away on September 3, 2019 in Lafayette, LA. John was born in Jennings, LA on September 19, 1991 and was raised in Lake Arthur on Morgan Shores. John lived life to the fullest, loved deeply and never met a stranger. His broad smile, infectious laugh and witty sense of humor will forever be ingrained in the hearts of those who know and love him.

John attended Our Lady Immaculate Catholic School from Pre-K through 8th grade. He graduated with honors from Jennings High School where he played football and golf. John attended the University of Louisiana at Lafayette (ULL) and was one semester shy of graduating with a degree in petroleum engineering. John rigorously worked offshore as an A operator for Wood Group.

John is survived by his parents, Elizabeth (Cassidy) and Bennett Lapoint of Morgan Shores, his sister and greatest ally, Catherine Cade Lapoint of Austin, TX, his maternal grandmother, Hannah "Didi" Cade Cassidy of Jennings, LA, paternal grandparents Hilda (Broussard) and John Edward "JE" Lapoint and a host of loving, supportive aunts, uncles, and cousins.

John was preceded in death by his maternal grandfather, Allen Walter Cassidy, Sr.

John was an avid animal lover, especially his dogs. He is survived by his "fur family", Holly and Beau, and was preceded in death by his ever faithful and loving dog, Buddy.

A celebration of John's life will be held on September 21st at the Lake Arthur Community Center from 10 AM until noon. The family of John Lapoint recognizes that drug addiction is a disease and hopes that those who know someone struggling with drug addiction will encourage recovery and reach out to them with love and concern.

“ My sincere condolences to Elizabeth, Bennett, and Catherine! You guys will be in my daily prayers. John was such a wonderful person, always smiling and very polite every time I met him. I remember he and Catherine coming to The Corner Store after school everyday to get snacks. I can envision John with those little eye glasses, something he and my Mary Gayle had in common. He will be missed very much by everyone who had the pleasure of knowing him, but it's such a consolation knowing that he is resting in the arms of our heavenly Father.

“ John was a enthusiasm leader as a third grader in my 3rd grade classroom. He had an easy wit, a humorous disposition, and an ability to make lemonade out of lemons. He loved to act out the parables of Jesus, do science experiments, and math explorations. If it got him out of his desk, he was all for it! If you asked him his favorite day of school, I bet he would've said Field Day or Government Day; he enjoyed both so much. John will forever be young in my mind and heart and I will carry his gregarious spirit with me always. Run on ahead, John. Mr. Joel and I look forward to the day when we see you again. Our deepest sympathies to you, Elizabeth, Bennett, and Cat. We share your sorrow and we also share the sure and certain knowledge that John has seen the Lord. They have some catching up to do.

“ Two or three years ago John pressure-washed our house for us. He began early in the morning and finished around 2 or 3 that afternoon. He and I conversed now and then during that time. He told me who his parents were and that J.E. and Hilda were his grandparents. We talked a little about J.E. and how Hilda was doing. At the time he was working to get back into college. John said that he fooled around and messed up, but he really wanted to get his degree. I must say that he was quite meticulous about doing a great job, (takes after J.E.), and we were so well pleased with his work. But more than that, this young man touched my heart. He was such a pleasant conversationalist and seemed like a bright young man, determined to make something of himself. I could tell that John must have had great parents because he was so polite and extremely well-mannered. I am sure he is leaving a big hole in the hearts of all of his family and many friends. These are the words to one of my favorite songs: "Precious memories, how they linger. How they ever flood my soul. In the stillness of the midnight, precious sacred scenes unfold." I am certain many memories will bring both smiles and tears, as you remember this fine young man. May God be with you all and may you feel His Presence during the difficult season that lies ahead

“ My prayer for John is that he has found the peace that he was so diligently searching for but could not find this side of heaven. May the angels carry him into the arms of Jesus who loved him unconditionally as his family and friends loved him. One day we shall all meet again in that place of happiness where there is no pain, tears or heartache. In the meantime be assured of my prayers for the family and all those who loved John that everyone find solace in knowing that there is a Resurrection even though we must experience the sting of death first. May Almighty God bless each and everyone of you in the name of the Father, Son and Holy Spirit, amen!
