“ The world is already a bit more dull without Uncle Joe! It is a true life well spent when everyone shares a fond memory, laugh and well taught lesson! Uncle Joe always had a terrific, most humorous way of seeing the world (and dragging you into that world). I will miss my Joe-isms but will always cherish the ones he shared with me! He will be missed greatly.

Love to all you girls!

“ Joe and I spent a lot of time together when we were late teens and early 20's. We were both army reservists, and he shot on the 95th Division pistol team. He knew I was a gun nut, suggested I try out for the team. It kicked off a competitive shooting avocation that lasted until my last trip to Camp Perry in 1987. Before I left for Viet Nam, I bought the house that Joe and his little girl, Edie, were living in and I owned that four years. We had a lot of good times.....he'd see and hear some lead footed driver whizzing past and say "Throw that man a Tootsie Roll (or a fish)". Never a dull moment with him.

“ Joe never met a buffet he didn't like. I smile at the very mention of his name- for the stories/memories come rolling back in. I loved the ol boy and he was better than a brother to me. I suspect heaven has a bit more laughter now.
